

SERVICES AT SIGLEYS

WELCOME

On behalf of our family business we are honoured that you have chosen us to assist you in celebrating your loved one's life.

Lyndhurst House offers a private and respectful place to remember a loved one in the centre of Leek.

From large gatherings of up to 70 people, or small family gatherings of five people, our service chapel offers something for everyone.

Take time to gather, remember and reflect in the privacy of Lyndhurst House, with the additional option of our in house catering service for post service refreshments.

If you wish to discover more about our personalised services please speak to a member of our team.
